

Terms and Conditions of Entry – valid for the Beat the Sunset 50km.

An entrant must agree that they enter this event at their own risk, with the understanding that the event organisers will act properly and diligently to reduce risk of any injury or loss to any participant.

The event will feature sections of off road running where the likelihood of running injuries are possible, and may feature sections of running along roads. Entrants must adhere to the instructions given by event marshals, within the Race Instructions provided online and via email with two weeks to go, and also adhere to details within the Race Briefing, which will be found online in advance of event day.

The organisers will not issue any refunds on entry fees, and in the exceptional circumstances whereby the organisers have to cancel the event, entries can be deferred to a future event in this instance. Entrants may also opt to participate virtually should the planned event be cancelled.

Please note that refunds will not be issued in the event of a force majeure, for example, but not limited to, foot & mouth and coronavirus pandemics.

Should you enter this event, and then not be able to attend due to injury, change of personal circumstance or any other reason, you have the following options.....

If more than 3 months before race day:-

- Deferral to a future event
- Transfer your entry to somebody else
- Opt to marshal at this event in exchange for a deferral to a future event

If less than 3 months before race day:-

- Transfer your entry to somebody else (the race organisers must be provided with the details for your replacement a minimum of two weeks prior to the event)
- Opt to marshal at this event in exchange for a deferral to a future event
- Forfeit your race entry but receive a 50% off voucher for any future event – available until two weeks to go

Race results and race photos will be available online and accessible to all; the event organiser may use any of the race photos in future event promotions and online in any capacity.

The organiser reserves the right to amend event details if required, but will only do so if absolutely necessary. In such circumstances, the entrant will receive the maximum period of notice of any amendments possible.

If you do not wish to adhere to these terms, we would politely ask you not to take part in the event.
